IMPORTANT TO USERS OF THE WIRES

When purchasing a Cipher Code be absolutely sure it is the best.

The Code that affords you the greatest saving on Telegraph and Cable tolls naturally is the one you desire.

The Western Union Code far exceeds others in the variety and comprehensiveness of its phrases. This is obvious from the following comparison:

HOW
WORDS WOULD YOUR
USE?

FOLLOWING are a few of over 800 pages that make the Western Union Code. More than 174,000 words are used; and to reduce to a minimum the chances of error in transmission, every word resembling another too closely, when reduced to the telegraphic alphabet, has been eliminated. This work was done by telegraphic experts. Errors in cabling are usually costly, and in considering the merits of a code but too frequently one of the most important points is neglected—that is, a consideration of the character of the code words used.

We have other tables in which "our" is substituted for "your," "letter" for "telegram," etc., etc.

In addition to its adoption by the leading Commercial, Manufacturing, Shipping, Banking and Legal firms throughout the world, the Western Union Code has been officially installed by the Telegraph Systems of practically all English-speaking countries, as well as by Japan, Belgium, Mexico, Central and South America, the West Indies, etc., etc.

The public has free access to the Western Union Code wherever it is on file in U. S. Consulates and Telegraph Offices, thus making it the only Universal Cipher Code System.

A POCKET EDITION OF THE WESTERN UNION CODE

(Five by six inches and less than one inch thick.)

Type clear and distinct. 175,000 words and phrases. Liliputian in size, but a giant in strength.

PRICE, £2.

It will save you hundreds of pounds in the long run. Carry a Pocket Edition with you wherever you may go.

IT IS PRICELESS

The Western Union Telegraphic Code insures absolute secrecy in the transmission of messages. Each word is numbered and, by a prior arrangement, only sender and receiver can decipher messages. Thus anyone contemplating an extended voyage can arrange with friends or business associates in the following manner.

If a message is sent in the month of January the receiver of such message is to go up one, two, or, for that matter, any number of words agreed upon, from the word actually transmitted. An arrangement on similar lines can be made for each month, or, for that matter, each day. It is impossible for an outsider to translate messages sent on this basis.
